

AN EXPERIENCE OF A LIFETIME OBSERVING

Phuket Elephant Sanctuary is an elephant retirement home set on 30 acres of stunning forest bordering the Khao Phra Thaeo National Park in north east Phuket.

We offer a unique experience observing retired working elephants rehabilitate into forest life. To be in the presence of an elephant is simply breath taking and we are sure a day spent with us will leave you captivated by how incredible the largest land mammal on earth truly is.

Departure Dates: Daily

Duration of Tours : 09:30 -11:00, 10:00 -11:30, 14:00 -15:30, 14:30 -16:00 (Suitable for all ages/ 90 minutes)

Program Description

This 90-minute program is a first-of-its-kind experience in Thailand, allowing you to observe 12 rescued elephants from our new, 500-meter long canopy walkway. You will be able to learn about Asian elephants and take some incredible photographs with beautiful nature views, while keeping a respectful distance to the elephants so that they can roam around, bathe and socialize freely. The program also includes an opportunity to feed some of elephants. At the end of the tour we serve a refreshing iced soda and complimentary snacks from a sumptuous snack bar while you can rest and enjoy the serenity of the sanctuary.
